

Prof. LU, Song

Born in August 1957; PRC nationality; Based in Beijing

Graduated from the Law Department of Peking University (LL.B. 1982), China Foreign Affairs University (LL.M. 1985) and Free University of Brussels (LL.M. 1986); Fulbright scholar at the Law School of Stanford University (1995-96), visiting scholar at Max Planck Institute (Hamburg, 2008);

With a life-long academic career in the teaching and research of arbitration, private international law, civil and commercial law at China Foreign Affairs University (“CFAU”) since 1985; Former Director of the CFAU International Law Institute, Associate Professor of law; specially invited professor of law at Geneva MIDS program teaching Arbitration in China since 2009, at the Law School of Tsinghua University teaching International Commercial Arbitration since 2013 and at the Law Faculty of Kyushu University teaching International Commercial Arbitration in 2012;

Admitted to practice Chinese law in 1989 and had been a part-time counsel for over 10 years;

Vice President of the Chinese Society of Private International Law, Executive Councillor of the Chinese Society of International Law, Member of China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (“CIETAC”), Vice Chairman of the Conciliation Centre of the China Council for the Promotion of International Trade;

Expert in Chinese arbitration law and practice; currently being listed in the panel of arbitrators of more than ten international arbitral institutions; having been involved in arbitration under the rules of CIETAC, Beijing Arbitration Commission, SCIA, HKIAC, SIAC, ICC, SCC, London Metal Exchange, AAA-ICDR, UNCITRAL and CAS as arbitrator, counsel or expert witness, covering, inter alia, trade, service, investment, joint venture, corporate matters, M&A, share-transfer, construction, hotel management, licensing, agency, distribution, intellectual property, banking, letter of credit, securities, financial derivatives, leasing, maritime transportation, sport-related dispute;

Co-founder of the Beijing International Arbitration Forum (“BIAF”);

ICCA Handbook reporter for China since 2008;

Working languages: Mandarin and English

Address: International Law Institute, China Foreign Affairs University

24 Zhanlan Road, Beijing 100037 China

Email: lusong99@126.com